Condition report – Rooming accommodation (Form R1)

Residential Tenancies and Rooming Accommodation Act 2008
(Section 81)

If a rental bond has been paid, the agent or manager/provider must fill in this condition report for the room.

Important

- When renewing a tenancy agreement with the same tenant, there is no requirement to complete a new Condition report.
- The original Condition report will remain valid unless the parties to the tenancy agree to prepare a new Condition report when the agreement is renewed.
- The room and the premises must meet minimum housing standards when the resident moves in and throughout the tenancy agreement. Learn more about minimum housing standards on the RTA website.

Agent or manager/provider

1. Inspect the room.
2. Mark each item on the list clean, working, undamaged and indicate how many items (where applicable).
3. Items not listed should be noted in the Agent or manager/provider comments column.
4. Give a signed copy of the report to the resident/s on or before the day they move in.
5. Once the resident/s return the report, you must make a copy of the report and give it to the resident/s within 14 days of receiving it.
6. You must keep a copy of this report for 1 year after the last accommodation agreement to which this condition report relates to ends.

Resident/s

1. Inspect the room.
2. Record your comments on any item where you disagree with the agent or manager/provider.
3. Talk to the agent or manager/provider if you disagree about the condition of the premises.
4. Sign the report and return it to the agent or manager/provider within 7 days of receiving it.
5. The agent or manager/provider must send you a copy of the final report.

If the condition report is not given to the resident within 7 days of occupation the resident/s must obtain and complete their own copy and return to the agent or manager/provider.

Condition reports must be completed in accordance with the Act. Penalties apply.

Do not send to the RTA—give this form to the resident/s, keep a copy for your records.

Other languages: You can access a free interpreter service by calling the RTA on 1300 366 311 (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.00pm).
